Ike Prepares To Pick Aide For Adams' Job

Quick Action Seen Coming, but Secrecy On Name Maintained

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower was reported preparing today to name an above-reproach successor to Sherman Adams as his chief White House assistant.

But even Republican National Chairman Meade Adorn, who played an active role in events leading to Adams' decision to retire, said he hasn't a glimmering of the presidential choice.

As an indication of how closely Eisenhower was guarding his decision, Secretary of the Interior Seaton said in Vallejo, Calif., he doesn't know whether he is being considered for the job.

"The matter of who succeeds to the post of presidential assistant is a particularly personal one with President Eisenhower," Seaton told a news conference Tuesday night.

Seaton, a former senator, left the Harold E. Stassen camp at a critical point to support Eisenhower's bid for the GOP presidential nomination in 1952. He is by all odds the choice of congressional Republicans for the job Adams is leaving.

But Seaton's reluctance to bow out of his Cabinet post heightened speculation about half a dozen other possibilities. These included Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther. Gruenther has served as Eisenhower's military chief of staff but now holds down the $30,000-a-year job, with fringe benefits, of president of the Red Cross. The White House post pays $22,500, headaches included.

About all that was certain in this clouded situation was that Eisenhower will act quickly to choose a man without any political strike against him to succeed Adams, who went down swinging in the season's greatest political rubarb.

Adams was assailed Tuesday night by Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler as an official who held "power and authority equal to that exercised by some presidents of the United States" and who quit only to satisfy political expediency.

Adams announced on a nationwide broadcast Monday night he was quitting. He said he had done no wrong in inquiring of government.

Girl Honor Student Kills Brother; She Was 'Tired' of Routine Living

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The routine of everyday living closed in on Diana Daye Humphries Tuesday. To escape the boredom she ambushed and killed her 14-year-old brother, Robert D. Humphries Jr.

"I did it because nothing exciting ever happens around here," the pretty, blonde 16-year-old girl sobbed hysterically to police.

She said she also planned to kill her father, mother and herself, but weakened when she saw her mother.

"I did it because everything was so routine," said Diana. "My mother goes to work every day and comes home tired. So does my father, and he is sick with ulcers."

"Everyone was always tired. Robert was tired of school. It seemed we were always getting up, going to work or school, coming home, cooking meals, eating, washing dishes, going to bed and getting up again."

"I couldn't stand it! I wanted to kill everyone quick so we wouldn't have to suffer anymore."

Robert didn't suffer, said police. He was shot through the forehead with an ancient single-shot .22 caliber rifle as he walked into the den of the Humphries home.

His sister said she stood over him and delivered a coup de grace shot in the back of the head.

"I didn't want him to suffer," she said.

Diana is an honor student at Reagan High School, where her teachers and schoolmates described her as a "brilliant student and well-liked girl, not the type to do a thing like this."

In her written statement to police, Diana detailed how she stayed home from school Tuesday because of an upset stomach, and then conceived the plan to kill her entire family and take her own life.

She prepared carefully, she said. She went to the garage and got the old rifle—handed down by her grandfather—and then found the bolt where her father had hidden it. She said her father, a retired Navy yeoman who now works for a manufacturing company, hid the bolt to keep Robert from hurting himself.

She assembled the gun, and went to a neighborhood store and bought a box of cartridges.

"I fired a test shot into my mattress to make sure the gun worked," she said.

Then she sat down to watch television, and waited.

Robert, a junior high school pupil, came home first.

"I jumped up and got in back of the television set and raised the gun, aiming it at the place he would walk," said Diana.

"I didn't want him to know it was me who shot him. I wanted to hit him quick, so he wouldn't hurt."

Robert, his school books under his arm, entered the door and Diana fired. Robert crumpled to the floor, his school books scattering.

Diana reloaded and shot him again. She covered him with a blanket and then stationed herself to await her mother.

Mrs. Humphries, a 34-year-old reservations clerk for Braniff International Airways, came up the walk outside.

"I saw then that there was no way that I could shoot mother without her seeing me," the girl sobbed. "I didn't want her to see me shoot her, so I told her to stay outside."

Mrs. Humphries said Diana "told me not to come in, that she had shot Robert and was going to shoot me."

"I walked in and took the rifle away from her. I thought she was joking. They're always playing jokes."

The girl was turned over to probation officials today.

Paul Erick, head of the probation department, said Diana would be given a psychiatric examination.

Nationalists Say 11 Red MIGs Downed

Chiung Forces Claim All Their U.S.-Made Sabre Jets Return

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Nationalist jets clashed with more than 100 Red MIGs over Formosa Strait today in one of the biggest jet battles in history.

The Nationalist Defense Ministry said 32 Nationalist Sabre Jets, flown by American-trained pilots, shot down 11 Reds and possibly 6 more. It said all Nationalist planes returned safely after the furious 10-minute battle.

Adm. Liu Hsiang-tu said the Nationalists ambushed the Communists as the Reds attempted to draw the Chiang Kai-shek armies over the Red mainland.

"They want to claim we are attacking the mainland and turn public opinion against us in the United Nations," Liu said.

The conflict swirled over the entire Formosa Strait area from Wenchow 400 miles southwest to Swatow, the spokesman said.

Maj. Gen. Yee Fu-en, Nationalist air force intelligence chief, reported through a spokesman that today's clash began when MIGs tried to get between the Sabre Jets and Formosa, and thus force the Nationalist planes over the Communist mainland.

In the three previous air battles since the Communists began bombarding the Quemoy Aug. 23, the Nationalists have claimed 14 MIGs shot down and three damaged. None of their own American-built planes, flown by American-trained pilots, have been lost, the Nationalists say.

The bombardment continued today with 1,026 shells hitting the Quemoy from midnight to 10 a.m., the ministry said.

None of the shells was hitting the supply beach or landing strip when a plane of foreign and Chinese newsmen landed on Quemoy, AP correspondent Forrest Edwards reported. He said his group of 22 foreign correspondents and 10 Chinese reporters heard distant explosions.

The group was the first to reach Quemoy since Nationalist authorities lifted an eight-day ban on newsmen there. Nationalists and U.S. authorities said the ban was for military reasons but never explained it further.

The commander in chief of U.S. forces in the Pacific said the supply situation "is getting better every day." Before leaving for Okinawa and Hawaii after three days of top-level military meetings, Adm. Harry D. Felt added, "I am not overly optimistic, but not discouraged."

Felt said the United States is helping supply Quemoy "to the greatest extent possible." Further U.S. help is a political question he could not answer, the admiral added.

Juvenile Delinquency Increase Is Expected

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP)—A nationally known authority on youngsters, Judge Phillip Gilliam of Denver, predicted to the Western Probation and Parole Assn. that juvenile delinquency in the United States will rise by 50 to 100 per cent within the next 10 years.

"We've got to make decency popular in America," he said. "Children today pride themselves on rough conduct."

UAW-Chrysler Talks Collapse

Firm Says Union Is Unreasonable

DETROIT (AP)—Chrysler Corp. and the United Auto Workers Union failed today to reach contract agreement in a 20-hour marathon bargaining session in which the company charged the union's demands were unreasonable.

Both Chrysler and UAW officials appeared bitter when they emerged from the conference room at the Chrysler personnel headquarters shortly after 6 a.m. UAW President Walter P. Reuther had told Chrysler it must settle by noon today or "be put on the back burner" while he turned his entire attention to General Motors negotiations.

"It would be useless to stay here and talk until the noon deadline for we are not even close to an agreement," Reuther said early this morning. "I am greatly disappointed in Chrysler's failure to bargain with us on the contract, but we have no intentions now of calling a strike and we still hope we can settle with Chrysler without a strike."

John D. Leary, Chrysler vice president, termed the breakdown in the negotiations needless and accused the union of "trying to whip-saw Chrysler into accepting terms that are neither sound nor equitable."

Reuther said he might return to Chrysler for resumption of talks Thursday morning. He was asked if that meant the UAW was going to extend its noon deadline ultimatum or serve Chrysler with another deadline notice. "We have not made any such plans," he replied.

Reuther said he would join General Motors negotiations. Asked if this meant Chrysler is "now on the back burner," Reuther said it did.

Detroit Battles Polio

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit has been hit by its worst outbreak of polio since the introduction of Salk polio vaccine. At least 440 cases have been reported this year, with 12 deaths.

High Schoolers Have Place For Recreation at Canteen

This is the first in a series of stories about the five agencies which are supported by the Pickaway County Community Fund.

The Pickaway County Youth Canteen serves about 225 youths across the county. Its prime purpose is to provide a supervised spot for teenage recreation.

The Canteen, located above the First National Bank at the corner of Court and Main Sts., has three separate rooms for differing types of recreation.

There's the Rhythm Room, with piano and juke box, for dancing; the Reading Room, with games, magazines and television set for quiet activity; and the Varsity Room with a food bar, booths and a table tennis outfit.

A chaperone, Mrs. Amos Palm, is on hand at all hours the Canteen is open.

The Canteen operates four nights a week. It's open from 7:30 to 10 p.m. on Wednesday and Thursday nights and from 7:30 to 11 p.m. on Friday and Saturday nights.

AVERAGE ATTENDANCE during the year is 40-90 youths per night—all having fun in a clean, wholesome atmosphere.

Youths in high school, from 13 to 19, can belong to the Pickaway County Youth Canteen. Parents of all youths who belong to the Canteen are automatically members of the parents' association.

This year officers of the parents group are Emmitt Emmerine, president; Dick Robinson, vice president; Mrs. Eleanor Gerhardt, secretary; and Mrs. Myra Mader, treasurer.

Members of the board of directors are Gene Barthelmas, C. T. Vaughan, Gordon Fraser, Earl Dean and Joe Bell.

Officers of the Youth group are Linda Emmerine, president; Cal Ellis, vice president, Connie Butcher, secretary, and Danny Robinson, treasurer. Council members are Betty Fraser, Sally Sampson, Charles Barnes, Sally Vaughan and Tom Butcher.

Just 12 per cent of the 1958 Pickaway County Community Fund budget will go for operation of this worthy agency during the next year. A total of $3,400 is needed to maintain operation of the Youth Canteen at its present level.

Any cut in operational funds, due to failure of the Community Fund to reach its goal, will mean a curtailment of Youth Canteen activities, just at a time when more of this type work is needed in the community.

Agents Smash 2 Stills

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Federal agents and Trumbull County sheriff's deputies Tuesday night raided a farm in nearby Mesopotamia and smashed two stills.

They arrested 57-year-old James Brown of Cleveland, who they said admitted operating the stills during the last six or eight weeks and peddling the products.

Southern Private School Proposals Slated for Legal Test in U.S. Court

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Southern plans to maintain segregation by changing public schools to private status face an early test in federal court.

The Little Rock School Board asked U.S. District Court Tuesday to say whether the board can legally permit a corporation to lease four high school buildings in the Arkansas capital.

A segregationist spokesman criticized the move as unnecessary. Amis Guthridge, a Little Rock Citizens Council leader, also said the board "is more interested in seeing the mixing of the races in our schools than seeing them operate."

The board asked the court for a quick answer. It said it is willing to lease the school buildings if the court will insure the board against contempt action.

Several Southern states besides Arkansas have private school plans as anti-integration weapons.

Six white secondary schools in Norfolk, Va., faced a gubernatorial shutdown order in the wake of a federal judge's refusal Tuesday to permit any further delay in their integration.

Gov. J. Lindsay Almond Jr. said he would probably order them closed after conferring with Norfolk city officials. About 10,000 students would be affected, more than three times the enrollment at Front Royal and Charlottesville, where the governor has closed three schools under Virginia's massive resistance laws.

Southern governors, concluding their annual conference at Lexington, Ky., were expected to debate a states' rights resolution.

Gov. Frank Clement of Tennessee said he might offer a resolution reaffirming states rights and responsibilities. And Gov. Marvin Griffin of Georgia, an outspoken segregation advocate, said the 16-state conference should resolve to protect states "against all federal encroachment."

The Little Rock School Board action could delay plans of Gov. Orval E. Faubus to reopen the four high schools next week on a private, segregated basis. Citizens of the Little Rock school district will vote Saturday on whether they want segregated or integrated schools, and Faubus has predicted an overwhelming vote for segregation.

Little Rock's three television stations are providing six hours of daily instruction by the regular teachers. First classes went on the air Monday.

At Van Buren, Ark., twin white boys were suspended Tuesday from the integrated high school. A school official said they refused to leave the school yard and return to classes after a reported spitting incident involving a Negro student. One of the twins said the Negro spat in his face. The Negro denied it.

Burglars Get Station Loot

Articles valued at $86 plus an undetermined amount of change were taken from the John Davis Service Station, Routes 104 and 316, Monday night or Tuesday morning.

According to Pickaway County Sheriff's deputies, entry was gained by breaking a north window. Included in the loot were 10 cartons of cigarettes, a camera and a pipe.

Deputies said an undetermined amount of change was taken from a pinball machine and a juke box. About $10 in dimes and pennies was removed from a box on a counter.

Local Court Hears OMI Accusation

Donald S. Dennis, 22, Route 1, Carroll, was cited into Circleville Municipal Court today on an accusation of driving under the influence of intoxicants.

Dennis, appearing before Judge Sterling M. Lamb, was fined $100 and costs, sentenced to three days in jail and lost his driving rights for six months. He was arrested by city police.

American Family Farm Being Eliminated, Claim

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — The head of the Ohio Farmers Union says he thinks the family farm is being eliminated in America as it was in Russia.

Joseph Fichter of Oxford, who recently returned from Russia, said Tuesday that government decree abolished the Soviet family farmer.

He said, "In our country, we are allowing the family farm to be eliminated by mechanization and by farm prices which are too low to permit the family farm to remain in operation."

Ailing Boy's Tears Reveal Gratitude

BOSTON, Mass. (AP) — What went on in the mind of 10-year-old Richard Garvin during those few minutes he clung to the phone became evident when the tears broke from his eyes.

He sat in his green and white striped pajamas. His parents were kneeling beside him, at the Children's Medical Center here, some 900 miles from his home town of Wagener, S.C. He listened while 600 people at the other end of the line in Wagener prayed for him to get well.

Richard is suffering from a condition which is causing both his liver and spleen to enlarge. Doctors are now are trying to determine why.

The people of Wagener gathered once before when Mr. and Mrs. Fern Garvin were sacrificing everything they owned to pay for their son's medical expenses.

Some $3,100 was collected that time.

Tuesday night the townsfolk added another $700. A special benefit show was held in Richard's honor—with a 10-minute telephone call to him as the high point. The call was piped in over a loud-speaker for all at the South Carolina end to hear.

Two ministers spoke to Richard, telling him that everyone at his home was there praying for him.

He sat motionless.

Then someone asked him if there was anything he would like to say to the folks on the other end of the line.

"Yes, I would," he said. "I would like to thank you all for everything you all done for me."

"I would like to thank you all," he repeated. "I appreciate it. And I do hope I can get better."

And on those words the tears streamed from his eyes.

U.S.-China Talks Nearing Climax

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Indications mounted here today that the Far East cease-fire talks between the United States and Communist China are rapidly approaching a climax.

U. S. Ambassador Jacob Beam studied new instructions for Thursday's fourth conference with Red China's envoy, Wang Ping-nan.

Informed sources said this meeting was likely to be the definitive one — one way or another — because President Eisenhower plans to issue a formal Far East policy statement in Washington Friday.

U. S. sources have indicated all along that about two weeks should show whether there was a good chance of negotiating a cease-fire. That period is now almost up.

Bachelors Fall For Lonely Heart Scheme

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A lonely heart scheme under which a man posed as a woman to obtain money by proposing marriage to "30 or 40" bachelors has been disclosed by U.S. Postal Inspector Tom L. McCulloch.

The inspector said Gail Harris, 28, of Route 1, Knox County, is being held awaiting federal district court action on a federal fraud charge.

McCulloch said Harris had admitted obtaining $1,200 from bachelors who wrote after obtaining names from a Chicago friendship club.

The postal inspector said Harris wrote bachelors in 24 states and that officials believe he may have obtained up to $2,500 from 30 or 40 men. He added that in his letters Harris obtained the money by expressing "matrimonial intentions" and then requesting money for traveling, medical and other needs.

Inspector McCulloch said the faked matrimonial scheme functioned for 20 months. Harris was taken into custody Sept. 18 at Coshocton by federal postal inspectors.

Bid for New Sheriff Cars Is Received

The Pickaway County Commissioners Monday accepted a quotation from the Pickaway Motors, Inc. for the purchase of one or possibly two automobiles for use by the local sheriff's department.

The quotation was received on one or two 1959 Ford Police Interceptor Special Custom 300 Tudors. Total price for one Ford was $3,298 with $1,500 allowed for trade-in of the present 1956 Oldsmobile Cruiser. This will involve a cash cost of $1,798.

The Pickaway Motors' quotation stated that if two cars were purchased, one now and the other on Jan. 1, 1959, $100 would be reduced on the total.

The second Ford would cost $3,298, less a $1,350 trade-in on the 1956 Ford cruiser for a total cost of $1,948.

BOTH OLD cruisers have more than 100,000 miles registered up on their speedometers.

In other business, the commissioners transferred $1,748 from the courthouse and jail fund to the Sheriff's equipment fund. A total of $805 was transferred from the courthouse and jail fund to the maintenance of other new equipment fund.

A total of $53,491.14 was paid for bills and claims against the county.

The Commissioners entered into an agreement with the Village of Williamsport for the care and maintenance of prisoners. Prisoners prosecuted for misdemeanors under ordinances of Williamsport will be housed in the county jail and under jurisdiction of the sheriff's department.

The prisoners will be committed after a hearing in Williamsport's Mayor's Court. The village will pay $2 a day per prisoner or 70 cents a meal per prisoner if committed for a full 24-hour period.

New Archbishop Named by Pope

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pope Pius XII today named Archbishop Albert G. Meyer of Milwaukee to succeed the late Samuel Cardinal Stritch as archbishop of Chicago.

The Chicago archdiocese, with 1,942,000 Catholics, is the largest of the 138 archdioceses and dioceses in the United States.

Announcement of the appointment was made by Archbishop Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, apostolic delegate to the United States.

Archbishop Meyer, a native of Milwaukee, is 55. He was ordained in 1926.

No date was set for the archbishop's formal installation in the Chicago archdiocese.

Mercy Hinted For Negro, 55, Facing Chair

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A 55-year-old condemned Negro is waiting today for a call to a meeting with a hospitalized governor who may spare his life.

Gov. James E. Folsom, under treatment for a minor illness, is reportedly ready to save Jimmy Wilson from the electric chair. The Negro, an ex-convict who has served two previous terms for grand larceny, was sentenced to death for robbing an elderly white widow of $1.95. He is scheduled to be executed Oct. 24.

A jury sentenced Wilson to death for robbing an 82-year-old white widow at her home in Marion, Ala. Mrs. Estelle Barker testified the Negro choked and tried to rape her and threatened her life before taking the money. In Alabama, juries set penalties in capital cases.

"I didn't put my hands on her," said Wilson in denying he tried to rape the victim.

A capital offense is defined under Alabama law as the taking of money or other goods of value, regardless of the amount involved, from another person by force or threat of violence.

The Alabama Supreme Court recently denied a request for a rehearing of the case. The high court emphasized that the Negro was not simply convicted of taking $1.95, but of a crime of violence.

Folsom's office has received thousands of letters and telegrams asking for clemency for Wilson. Many of the letters contained checks for $1.95.

Teamster Unit Authorizes Cut in Wages

CLEVELAND (AP)—A Teamsters Union local of drivers for six industrial catering companies has agreed to take a substantial cut in weekly wage minimums and commissions to keep their employers "from going out of business."

The catering firms have been hard-hit by the recession-reduced employment in the factories where they bring snacks and meals to employees.

The new agreement, affecting about 130 employees, at first was rejected by the union membership, 65-17.

Later some members authorized their stewards to go ahead with the salary-cut plan, said William Long, vice president of Bakery Drivers Local 52.

Under the new agreement, the weekly wage minimum for driver-salesmen was reduced from $80 to $73 and their 20 per cent commission on total weekly sales over $400 was cut to a commission of 16 1/2 per cent on weekly sales over $365.

In Kansas City, officers of the National Postal Transport Assn. Tuesday rejected a proposal to increase their salaries.

A resolution proposing a 10 per cent increase was introduced by William F. Jennings of Lynn, Mass., at the association's convention. He said it was justified because all postal employees had received a 10 per cent hike.

But Paul A. Nagle, president, and Wallace A. Legge, industrial secretary, both of Washington, asked that the proposal be shelved. They said the higher salaries would force an increase in union dues.

O'Neill Stand On Labor Law Hit by Dems

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state Democratic chairman today accused Republican Gov. C. William O'Neill of "taking a back alley approach to corruption and racketeering in isolated unions."

Chairman William L. Coleman issued a statement referring to the governor's announced personal support of the proposed amendment to regulate labor contracts. "The governor is taking the position that right-to-work would automatically end racketeering," Coleman said in his statement. "He knows better. The only way to get at such malpractices is directly—through legislation directed at specific evils, such as misuse of funds."

"Gov. O'Neill again is not being honest with the voters. The real reason he took the stand he did is that some of his main financial contributors are the chief promoters of the so-called right-to-work amendment and they smoked him out. He is giving corruption as a motivating force to disguise the real reason for his stand."

His decision to support the amendment, Gov. O'Neill said, was a personal one, and did not reflect the stand of the Republican Party as a whole. He said he believed citizens should make up their own minds which way to vote. He will not campaign directly for the proposal, he said.

Goldfine, who showered expensive favors on Adams, said in Boston he believed Adams had quit "out of regard for President Eisenhower, whom he so loyally and ably served."

Continuing Idle Pay Claims Drop

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Continuing claims for unemployment compensation in Ohio have shown a drop of nearly 10,000 for the week ended Sept. 20, compared to the previous week's figures.

But the new claimant totals continued the up and down pattern of the last month. New claims filed in the week ended Sept. 20 totaled 14,529 compared to 13,319 the previous week.

The total figure for continuing claims is 110,812 compared to 120,420 for the week ended Sept. 13. The average of continuing claims in September of last year was 51,824.

Cancer Ends Tragedy-Laden Career of One-Time Beauty

NEW YORK (AP) — Beauty and talent and sometimes riches—they served only at interludes to line with silver the great cloud of tragedy that hung over the life of Nedra Sanders.

Nedra, Mrs. Albert Broccoli since 1951, died of cancer Tuesday in Doctors Hospital. She was 39. Many of those years she spent trying to erase the memories of violent deaths which followed her like a fateful shadow.

At 18, she was married for the first time, to William M. Evans of Chicago. It lasted three years. She sued for divorce in 1941. The same year she was selected queen of brunettes in a beauty contest. She became a sought-after cover girl.

Then Evans returned tragically to her life. Incensed when she refused to drop the divorce action, he slashed her with a knife and stabbed to death their 2-year-old son Douglas and her mother Mrs. William J. Sanders. She obtained a divorce after Evans was sent to the Illinois State Prison for life. Nedra went to Hollywood. She married popular singer Buddy Clark and bore him a daughter, Penny, in 1942.

Clark was killed in a plane crash in 1949. He was the only casualty among the six passengers.

Less than a year later, Penny, then 7, ran across a Brentwood, Calif., street to meet a playmate. She was struck and killed by a car.

In 1951, Nedra married Albert Broccoli. They had two children, Anthony, 4, and Christina, 2. Broccoli enjoyed success as a movie producer in England and they lived in London.

But Nedra fell ill last May and returned here for treatment. It failed.

Services will be held here Thursday. Then her body will be shipped to Los Angeles for interment Saturday.

Farmers Can Change Land To Game Use

Farmers in Pickaway County may enjoy better hunting and fishing and get paid for it. According to Hillis Hall, Vocational Agriculture Instructor at Jackson Twp. School, many acres of farm land are eligible for the 1959 Soil Bank Program.

Under the Conservation Reserve Program, cropland may be developed for wildlife under the so-called "G" practices, with the Federal Government paying up to 80 per cent of the costs involved in establishing the various practices. In addition, the government makes annual rental payments for the period of the contract.

The 1959 Conservation Reserve Program has increased its benefits. Hall points out that last year in Ohio the average annual payment was $12 per acre and that this year that average will be $19 with maximum payment of $25 per acre or 20 per cent of the land value.

Three classes of wildlife management practices are available under the Conservation Reserve. They are designated "G-1, G-2, and G-3." Tree planting, food and cover plantings, creation of fish ponds and shallow water wildlife marshes are typical developments which are available through these "G" practices.

Farmers interested in participating in the 1959 Conservation Reserve must sign-up soon. The deadline date for contacting the County ASC (Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee) office is Friday, October 10. Hall urges farmers to visit their ASC office

Ohio Eyes Plan For New Lake

Guernsey County Site May Take 9,000 Acres

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — How much land the state will need to build a new lake about the size of Buckeye Lake will be known within a month.

The project, long discussed in and out of the State Legislature, is the controversial water supply reservoir in Guernsey County. In all, the state will need between 8,000 and 9,000 acres of land, the Department of Natural Resources estimates.

The project shows up in the list of six submitted to the Division of Capital Planning for a six-year program beginning next July 1. The department's water division proposes to go ahead with the project quickly—if money is made available. Capital improvements come from surplus state money.

Total estimated cost is $3,652,329, which includes $700,000 already appropriated by the Legislature. A dam five miles north of Cambridge near where U. S. 21 crosses Salt Fork Creek would create a 3,000-acre lake. Rest of the land would be used for recreation purposes.

Rehabilitation of 10 locks and dams, which the federal government is abandoning in the Muskingum River between Marietta and Zanesville, would cost $500,000 and be spread over a period of six years.

The federal government soon will give the state title to the locks and dams. Ohio also hopes to get $235,000, representing the amount it would cost the government to remove the dams.

The dams create a series of lakes which are used by water sports enthusiasts.

The division wants to spend $500,000 over a six-year period to explore for underground water supplies in Ohio.

The underground water reservoirs were formed by glaciers moving across Ohio. If they can be found, the department says, cost of tapping the cold, salt-free water is much less than that of building reservoirs. The department says they would provide large sources of water safe from enemy bombs.

Your Lipstick Supply Should Offer Variety

PICK THE LIPSTICK that blends with what you're wearing. A stock of four to six shades should offer enough variety.

By JEANNE D'ARCY
How many lipsticks do you own? If the answer's, "Only one or two," better do some shopping. You should have at least four to six different lipstick shades on hand if you want your make-up perfect.

Why so many? There are good reasons.

First, there's your wardrobe. If you go in for color, each dress you own may call for a different shade of lipstick. One shade won't go with everything!

A brilliant red dress, for example, calls for a lipstick that matches. Wear your favorite pink lipstick with it and the effect is all wrong—too light. Apply a deep blue-red and it clashes. Try a medium red and it's washed out, not bright enough to match the brilliance of the dress.

As a rule, blue shades go with lipsticks that are pink, plum, rose or blue-red. Yellows, greens and blue-greens look well with coral, tangerine, rusty-red. Keep these color facts in mind, but remember they are very general statements.

Don't count, for example, on wearing a pink lipstick with every blue dress you own. It won't work! Navy calls for a brighter lip touch, a rose or blue-red shade. With pale blue, pink may be pretty but rose may even be prettier.

You have to experiment. Have a number of flattering shades handy. Try them out with your wardrobe to see which does the most for each dress.

There's a second reason for keeping a number of lipsticks in stock. It's Changeable You!

Know it or not, your appearance isn't necessarily the same every day. The appearance of your complexion can alter for a number of reasons.

Exercise and fresh air can give it a healthy glow. Fatigue or sickness may leave it pale. Lack of sleep can cause it to appear gray. The same shade of lipstick won't flatter rosy, pale and gray-looking skin.

On a day when you're tired, for example, that favorite blue-red will emphasize the fact. This is the time when a coral or a glowing but not-too-harsh red comes to the rescue, tones down that gray, tired look.

Even with four to six lipsticks, there can be occasions when not one of them looks exactly right. When this happens, use two and create a new shade that's becoming.

Apply a dark shade first, a lighter one over it. Or try the reverse. Sometimes two together can hit the happy medium that makes you look pretty.

DAC Chapter Holds Luncheon

Col. William Ball Chapter Daughters of the American Colonists met Saturday with the regent, Mrs. Dano Starr, at the Presbyterian Church, London, for a luncheon prepared by the ladies of the church. The ritualistic opening was conducted by Mrs. O. W. Finley, chaplain. Miss Dhel Renick gave the secretary's report. Mrs. Richard Hedges was appointed to fill out the term of the treasurer, Mrs. B. A. Schadel, who resigned because of ill health.

The regent read several items from the newsletter of Rep. Bolton relating to national defense.

Mrs. S. Croman presented a paper on the Liberty Bell, written in first person, recounting several interesting events in its history. It is 208 years old and rests on a thirteen-sided platform in Independence Hall, Philadelphia. Formally recognized in 1876 as the national symbol of freedom, it is a revered and cherished reminder of the early struggles for independence. The chapter voted to file the paper in the National Library.

Learning of the death of Jesse C. Chance, husband of one of the members, the following drove to the home of Mrs. Jessie E. Chance and daughter, London, to offer condolences: Mrs. John Zahn, Mrs. Ella Hornbeck, Mrs. Hedges, Mrs. Starr, Miss Renick, Mrs. Croman.

The next meeting will be a carry-in luncheon at the home of Miss Renick in October.

"Pancake Party" Planned by WSCS

Circle No. 3 of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist Church plan to sponsor a "pancake party" following the Circleville - Wilmington football game Friday evening.

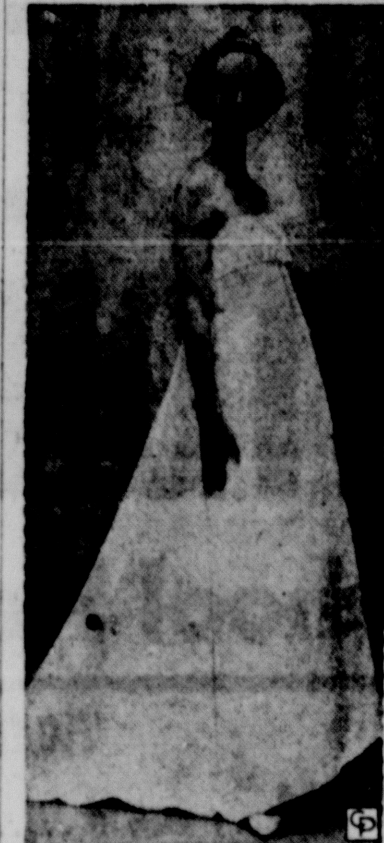

The party will be held in the church basement with serving from 10-11 p. m. In charge of the project will be Mrs. Donald Crist and Mrs. Byron Gulick, co-chairman.

Three Personalities of UN Program for Monday Club

"A Salute to United Nations" was the program for the Monday Club when it met Monday evening in the trustee room of the Memorial Hall.

Mrs. Bishop Given, president, presided during the meeting. Mrs. Richard Robinson opened the program by singing "United Nations on the March."

Three personalities of the United Nations were introduced in the paper: entitled "A Salute to United Nations" by Mrs. Frank Morrison.

A REGAL evening gown of white satin by Modern Couture follows Empire lines. The front of the dress falls straight from a narrow strapless bodice traced with crystal and pearl embroidery; the back of the gown sweeps out in a train.

They were Dag Hammarskjold of the Secretariat, Eleanor Roosevelt, past member of the General Assembly and the Human Rights Commission and Henry Cabot Lodge, the Security Council.

Mrs. Morrison said, "Hammarskjold, a political economist was Sweden's leading monetary expert and one of her most brilliant diplomats and orators with a strong background of international experience. Life magazine describes him as a 'man in a hurry, waging peace,' or the United Nations' Fire Chief who zooms to the Middle East dousing dangerous smoulders before they can flare into conflagrations. Hammarskjold believes the world must live and learn to live with provisional arrangements because there is no solution to the long range problems which we can find over night."

"Eleanor Roosevelt reports that no victory in debate at the General Assembly with the Soviet Delegation is easy. The Russian Tenacity is hard for some of us to accept because they often believe that by never giving round on any point they can wear down their opponents and win."

"Henry Cabot Lodge has said, 'The United Nations wasn't set up to keep the peace and save us from the horrors of World War III.'"

Mrs. Morrison concluded her paper by saying, "governments have tended to let international questions lapse into chaos and then when everything seems hopeless to say, 'our policy is to work through the United Nations.' The United Nations performance in many cases has been far from perfect. Don't let its faults and failures keep us from recognizing its virtues and successes. It is still the world's best hope for peace."

Personals

Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Marshall, 212 E. Franklin St., have returned from Berea, Ky., where Dr. Marshall assisted with the annual physical examinations of students at Berea College. He formerly served on the staff and faculty at Berea College Hospital.

Mrs. J. B. Hill, Orient, has as a recent visitor her step-daughter, Joanne Hill Jacques, near Los Angeles. The visit was enjoyable to both as a renewal of close friendship and was spent sightseeing around Columbus.

TWO-PIECE CONE of French worsted plaid (claret and black) is from Harvey Berin's fall collection designed by Karen Stark. The skirt is suspended from a camisole top. A bold bow of black silk faille accents the collar of the short drop-over top.

50th Anniversary Celebrated Sunday

Wiener Roast, Social Hour For EUB Class

A wiener roast was enjoyed by members of the Willing Workers Class of the Pontious EUB Church Thursday afternoon. It was held at Stouts Road Side Park on the Lancaster Pike with 10 members and two guests present.

Mrs. Larry Goodman, president, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Betty Palmer was in charge of devotions. She used the 65th chapter of Psalms as the scripture lesson. Devotionals were closed with a prayer by Mrs. Creation Kraft.

Mrs. Sterley Croman, Route 4, will be hostess to the next meeting. The date will be announced later.

Mrs. Ethel Klingensmith was in charge of the social hour.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am not yet 21; married three years, have two children, and am not very wise in many ways. My husband and I are very much in love and extremely happy except for one thing: he doesn't have much faith in the female sex.

He believes the majority of wives are unfaithful, or would like to be. I've told him I don't believe this; and that I wouldn't ever be untrue. He says that's because I am too young; and in 10 years or so he will see. I don't understand why he feels that way.

I want to be married to George all my life; and I want him to have more faith in me. I think faith is very important to marriage; and I would be so grateful if you can help me.

K.F.

DEAR K.F.: Actually it is George who should see his pastor; and perhaps also a psychologist or psychiatrist. "Evil to him who evil thinketh" is a saying he might ponder.

In insisting, as he does, that "the majority of wives are unfaithful, or would like to be," and predicting such a course of dishonor for you too, eventually, George is simply divulging the poison contents of his own imagination.

As for what to do—it is problematic whether you can clean up George's thinking by direct effort. But at least you can take steps to protect your emotional health against his brand of morbidity. Therefore I advise a talk with your pastor, or a psychiatrically oriented religious counsellor.

Also, you need the benefits of systematic social exchange with worthwhile friends, to maintain your confidence in the wholesome aspects of human nature. Your instinct is sound, in wanting some regular respite from child-care—which you felt might be arranged by taking night classes, to finish high school, thereby "killing two birds with one stone."

You write from a big town; and I hope your pastor will take the trouble to study your problem and steer you wisely, in drawing upon church and neighborhood resources, to keep your marriage on the right track—and to help George outgrow his sick bias.

M.H.

Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of this newspaper.

Farm Youth, 17 Admits Clubbing Dad, Setting Fire

NORWALK, Ohio (AP)—Police today are holding 17-year-old James Walter Bauerle in the death of his father, Walter R., 54.

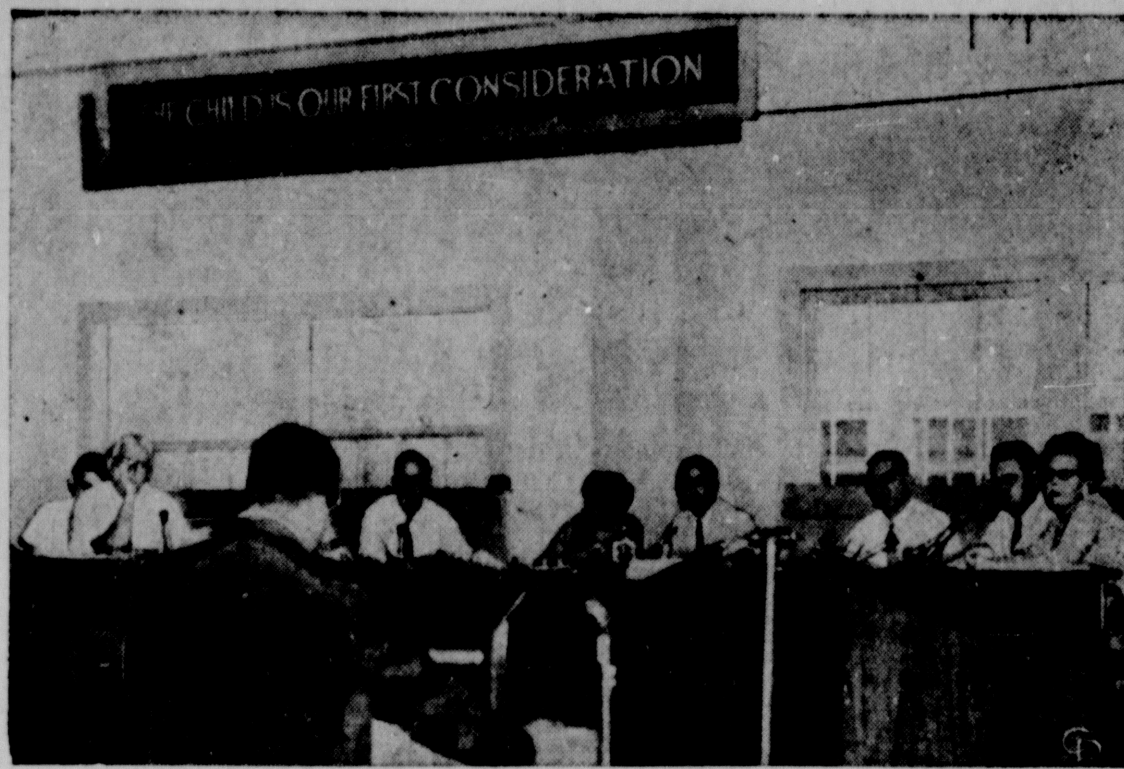

The youth admitted to authorities Tuesday that he hit his father over the head with a piece of lumber, then set fire to a barn at their home two miles west of nearby Greenwich. Bauerle's remains were discovered in the burned barn a few hours after the blaze had destroyed the structure Monday.

Deputy State Fire Inspector Glen Shiverdecker quoted young Bauerle as saying he had planned the fire for two or three months. The youth gave no motive.

Shiverdecker said James admitted under questioning that he called his father to the barn, hit him on the head, then tossed a match into hay he had previously soaked with fuel oil.

Key to Situation

ROANOKE, Va. (AP)—A secretary in the federal building here has learned that no two keys in the building fit the same lock. She locked the keys to her house, car, office and postoffice box in a cabinet. A locksmith proved to be the key to her situation.

'NO,' SAYS MIAMI SCHOOL BOARD—The Dade County (Miami, Fla.) School board listens as NAACP attorney G. E. Graves speaks on behalf of a group of Negro children who want to enter an all-white school. The board rejected the applications. Graves is in the foreground.

Ohio High Court To Hear Dispute On SUB Oct. 7

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court will hear arguments at 9 a.m., EST, Oct. 7 on the bitterly contested supplemental unemployment benefits (SUB) case.

SUB will be the first case heard on its merits after the court's summer recess. The court announced today it has set aside 90 minutes for arguments—45 minutes to a side. Normally there is a one-hour limit.

The court actually will hear two cases at once. Both originated in Mahoning County. Both Common Pleas and Appellate Courts ruled in both cases that present Ohio law permits SUB payments and state unemployment benefits to the same person at the same time.

James R. Tichenor, administrator of the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, has ruled simultaneous payments illegal.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

THE MISSUS was excused by the judge for breaking a china platter over her husband's head when the court learned what her provocation was. "I've got to plan dinner for tonight, Henry," she had said. "Do you like codfish balls?" The husband's answer (immediately preceding the platter-breaking) was, "I don't know. I never attended any."

An elderly gentleman insisted on seeing the president of a publishing house in person. When he gained admittance through the sacred portals, it developed that he wanted a copy of a certain book on the art of letter writing. "We let that go out of print long ago," laughed the publisher. "We have a new one ready on the same subject. Want a copy? It's got that dreary old stinker skinned a mile." "I do not need your dubious assistance in composing letters," the caller remarked coldly. "I happen to be the author of the dreary old stinker."

British Bet Their Jet To Beat Yankees

LONDON (AP)—Britons were happily laying odds today that the first jet plane to make the rich Atlantic passenger run will be British.

A glance at the headlines in most London papers was enough to lift English hearts.

"Comet will beat the 707," said the News Chronicle.

"Comet winning Atlantic race" was the headline in the Empire-minded Daily Express. The Daily Herald wrapped it all up ahead of time with a front page spread: "Comet nips in first—Britain wins Atlantic jet race by a week."

Chief competitor of the sleek, four-engine Comet is America's larger Boeing 707, scheduled to make the first New York-Paris passenger crossing for Pan American World Airways Oct. 26 and the New York-London hookup Nov. 16.

If the fondest hopes of British aviation leaders work out, the Comet may streak across the Atlantic with passengers as early as the second week in October.

Overhanging the jet stampede is the question of noise restrictions. Airport officials from New York, London and Paris started work in the French capital today to try to hammer out some kind of common operations control system for jet airliners.

Their decision is scheduled to be announced within the next two weeks.

Those Southern Democrats Just Love Sen. John Kennedy

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Judging from what they're saying about Sen. John Kennedy at the Southern Governors' Conference today, you would think he was Dixie-born, a descendant of Robert E. Lee, and a man who eats hominy grits and corn pone three times a day.

Kennedy, a Yankee from Massachusetts, is that popular in the South, so they say.

In any discussion of the Democratic presidential nominee in 1960 Kennedy's name leads the field by a wide margin here.

"The South likes Kennedy," said Gov. Marvin Griffin of Georgia. "He's got a lot of friends down our way," said Mississippi's James P. Coleman.

"I find more favor for Kennedy than any other one person," said Gov. Leroy Collins of Florida. "Basically, Florida Democrats feel he's a good prospect to win, he's sound, and he has the qualifications."

What about the religious factor? Kennedy is a Roman Catholic. Would this cost him votes in the heavily Protestant Southern states?

Southerners reply with a vigorous "No."

They say religious feeling has evaporated in the South to a point where it is no longer a major political consideration.

"I'll put it this way," said Tennessee's Frank Clement, "I hope that no member of my own family would vote against a man because of his religion, be he Catholic, Protestant or Jewish."

Kennedy has been working hard in the Southern states for more than a year. He has traveled continually, accepted innumerable invitations to speak. He seems to have made a highly favorable impression.

W'msport Girl To Show Cow At Chicago

Every nationality group has produced certain dishes. The use of spices and herbs goes back almost to the beginning of history. It is believed that these seasonings were added to cover up the strong flavors in foods caused from the lack of refrigeration.

Present day cooks use spices and herbs lightly to give foods that quality which prompts people to say "What is that delightful flavor?"

TRUE SPICES are the buds, leaves, seeds, bark, roots and berries of various pungent plants, grown chiefly in the tropics. Herbs grow only in the temperate zone and their leaves are the part of the plant used to season foods.

Miss Netz is an expert in the use of these spices and herbs. She created an interest not soon to be forgotten. Many of us use spices and herbs, not knowing we are adding the gourmet touch to our tables.

To be included in the classes of the "Home Demonstration Clubs" throughout the county, contact the local extension office. There are now 11 such clubs in the county and all county women are invited to share the harvests reaped each year. From September until April many different things are offered in these club groups.

Handling Immature Corn Is Tricky, but Possible

By GEORGE HAMRICK
County Extension Agent,
Agriculture

More farmers than usual are faced this fall with the problem of utilizing immature corn.

A few suggestions that will be helpful with this problem are: harvest the driest corn first, and if possible do it on cold days. Harvest of immature spots should be delayed to allow a maximum of drying in the field.

The old practice of cutting and shocking corn may be considered out with most farmers, but it is still a good salvage method for immature corn.

After the picking operation has begun it may be necessary to sort the corn and feed the soft wet corn first to hogs or other livestock. Farmers should also consider soft corn silage, using the whole plant. If the silo capacity is limited make ear corn silage of a snapped or husked ears.

The maturity of the corn is determined by the ear development and not by the greenness of the fodder. Some corn may have green leaves and sappy stalks when the corn is mature, while others may have dead leaves and relatively dry stalks. By the time the moisture content in the kernels of growing corn has dropped to 35 per cent, the transfer of nutrients to the ear has stopped, and the corn has reached maturity.

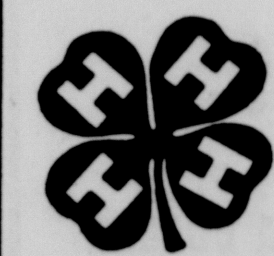

IN GOOD CORN years the moisture content of the kernels of mature corn should range from 20 to 30 per cent when the first killing frost occurs, and within a few days afterward the corn may be cribbed without other than regular precautions against spoilage in storage.

In soft corn years, a serious feeding and storage problem is created because a killing frost prevents proper maturing of the kernels. It is not uncommon for immature corn, killed by frost, to have a kernel moisture content considerably greater than 55 per cent.

When dealing with high moisture content mature corn, if harvesting is delayed until cold weather, foreign material is removed from the corn, and suitable ventilation is used in the crib, corn with up to 30 per cent moisture in the kernel will store safely under ordinary conditions of crib storage.

Corn with more than 30 per cent moisture in the kernel, even with the most careful handling, may not store safely as ear corn unless adequate flue ventilation is forced air, or possibly heat is used to aid the drying process.

Ordinarily, the moisture content of corn stored in open cribs will not drop below 16 to 18 per cent in cold winter months. Some drying must necessarily take place in the warm spring weather to drop the moisture content of corn kernels to below

4-Her Reports On Congress At Columbus

By JO GOLDSCHMIDT
Eight club members from Pickaway County attended Ohio's 41st annual 4-H Club Congress at the Ohio State University on September 13-17.

Each county is permitted to send one delegate for each 100 4-H club members. Nancy Wilson, Mary Jo Bowers, Joie Skinner, Jo Goldschmidt, Eddie Domsitz, Dick Somers, and Nathan Wilson were Pickaway's delegates. Patty Hockman won a trip to the Congress with her electric project. In all there were approximately 900 delegates.

The theme of our Club Congress was "Living In An Exploratory Age". The main topics were: Our 4-H Clubs, Ourselves, Our Government, and Our Friends from Other Lands.

The program began with an assembly on Saturday afternoon. Director W. B. Wood gave the welcome. The outstanding guest was H. W. Harshfield, State 4-H Club Leader.

Following all assemblies we were divided into discussion groups where we talked over the speaker's ideas and thoughts as well as our own. Saturday evening we toured the West Campus, and then attended a delicious barbecue. A get-acquainted party was held in the ballroom of the Ohio Union that night.

ON SUNDAY morning worship was held in the Browning Theatre with the Rev. George S. Ayer officiating. Later that morning we attended the church of our choice. Sunday afternoon Dr. Ray Burkhardt was our guest speaker. We believe he was the outstanding speaker during the entire Club Congress with his talk on "Understanding Ourselves".

Sunday evening we were entertained by the talent and safety talk winners. Monday was highlighted by a mock legislative session held in the Ohio State Capital Building. The bill which we were considering was "all secondary schools in Ohio to require a minimum of 3 years of science and 3 years of mathematics for all students, the content of the courses offered to be determined by the State Department of Education." This bill was defeated. Nancy and Patty were chosen as representatives for the legislature.

Monday evening we enjoyed an excellent water show followed by recreation at the Ohio Union.

By Tuesday morning we were all quite tired, but we managed to get up in time for a tour through a college of our choice. In the afternoon we heard a panel of International Farm Youth Exchange students.

The climax of our stay was quickly approaching. A banquet was held in the ballroom of the Ohio Union. A. B. Graham, founder of 4-H in Ohio, was the guest speaker. Following this we could dance on the Ohio Union Terrace or in the ballrooms. The climax of our stay was here — the candlelight service at Mirror Lake. It was too beautiful for words but its impression on us will last forever.

These are a few of the highlights of our Club Congress. We are grateful to all who made it possible for us to have the honor and privilege of attending the 41st Ohio 4-H Club Congress.

Fly Free Date Here Oct. 1

By GEORGE HAMRICK
County Extension Agent,
Agriculture

The Hessian fly should be given strong consideration this fall when planning to plant wheat. This simple practice of delaying planting until after the fly safe date has controlled a very destructive insect, a practice which costs farmers nothing. New varieties are now being developed which has a Hessian fly resistance.

Dual, a new variety developed for its resistance, is now available in Ohio. Although not entirely resistant to all strains of the Hessian fly, it is the most resistant variety available and should be used when planting is not delayed until the fly free date. The fly free date for Pickaway County in 1958 is October 1.

Wheat should be planted as soon as possible after this date, because wheat sown extremely late is less productive than wheat planted at the optimum time and is more subject to winter kill. The fly free date has been set to delay planting to escape the last brood of the Hessian fly and also to set a date which, under normal conditions, will produce the most desirable stand.

Skool!

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — Antonio Elwell of Albuquerque told police he received his many cuts and bruises when four men pulled him out of a local bar and:

Dragged him to the rear of the establishment, beat him up, threw him into a car, roared down a street and threw him out while the car was in motion.

The reason? Elwell said he refused to buy the four a drink.

The letter-opener weapon is visible in his chest. He escaped death by a fraction of an inch. Police are holding Mrs. Izola Ware Curry (left), 42, who had come to the city from Adrian, Ga. Spectators said they heard her mutter, "I've been after him for six years." Police said they found a loaded pistol in her clothes. Rev. King is a Negro leader of Montgomery, Ala.

2 Supreme Court Judgeships Open

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two of the seven seats on the bench of the Ohio Supreme Court will be filled by voters in the November election.

The seats now are held by one Democrat and one Republican. Both seek re-election. One term begins Jan. 1, the other Jan. 2. Terms are for six years. Annual salary is $18,000.

Seeking to return to the bench for the Jan. 1 term is Judge Charles B. Zimmerman of Springfield, a 25-year veteran of the state's highest tribunal. He is a Democrat. Opposing him is Willard D. Campbell of Columbus, formerly of Cambridge, a Republican.

The Republican bidding for re-election is Judge James Garfield Stewart, former Cincinnati mayor. Opposing him for the Jan. 2 term will be Democrat Merrill D. Brothers, Columbus attorney.

The Supreme Court, essentially, is an appeals court, but it also interprets the meaning of the laws passed by the Legislature and decides whether the laws are proper in light of the Ohio Constitution.

Candidates for the court are nominated in party primaries, but in the general election nominees names appear on a non-partisan ballot which does not designate their party affiliation.

Two of the holdovers on the court, including Chief Justice Carl V. Weyandt, are Democrats. Three are Republicans.

Judge Zimmerman, now 66, originally was appointed to fill a vacancy on the high court in 1933. A year later, he was elected to his first full term. He now is completing his fourth full term.

He is a World War I veteran and a graduate of Wittenberg College and Harvard Law School. He is a past state governor of the Society of Colonial Wars and a past state president of the Sons of the American Revolution. He is a Lutheran and a member of the Moose, Eagles and Knights of Pythias.

Campbell, 57, is a former Guernsey County prosecutor, judge and state senator and, from 1946 to 1953, directed work of the Ohio Bureau of Code Revision which streamlined Ohio's entire code of laws. This is his fourth bid for a Supreme Court seat.

He was supreme governor of the Loyal Order of Moose in 1953-54. Before that he was state president of the order. He is a graduate of Muskingum College and Yale University Law School.

Judge Stewart, now 77, is seeking his third term on the state's highest bench. He first was appointed in 1947 after an unsuccessful bid for the governorship in 1944 against Frank J. Lausche.

Twenty years ago he first became Cincinnati mayor. He served in that office until his appointment to the court. He is a graduate of Kenyon College and Cincinnati Law School. He later taught law courses at the Cincinnati institution.

Brothers, 45, is making his second bid for the high court. He was an assistant attorney general shortly after he was admitted to the bar. World War II interrupted his education, but he returned to resume his law studies and was admitted to the bar in 1948.

A graduate of Ohio State University, he is a member of the American Legion, the Elks and Eagles.

Raising 2 Clans Labeled Easy

Actress Jane Wyatt Explains Her Situation

Tue AD. No. 2. Raising By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Editor Most women have trouble raising one family, but unruffled Jane Wyatt, of New York and Hollywood, manages two with the greatest of ease.

"It's confusing only to the public," says the youthful-looking, blue-eyed Jane, who plays the mother in the TV series, "Father Knows Best." In private life she is the wife of investment banker Edgar B. Ward and mother of two sons, Chris, 21, a student at M.I.T., and Michael, 15, who attends prep school in Rhode Island.

For five years Jane's screen husband has been Robert Young, and the other members of the TV Anderson family have been her three make-believe children: Betty, the college daughter, played by Elinor Donahue; Bud, the high school son, played by Billy Gray, and little Kathy, played by Lauren Chapin.

"We've had the same children in the cast from the beginning," says Jane, "and of course all three are five years older now. We planned it that way. If the series goes on and on, as seems likely, we can start having grandchildren when Betty gets old enough to be married."

"The whole thing is so realistic that many of the public seem to think that Robert Young is my real husband, and the three youngsters our own children."

Jane is a native New Yorker who has starred in both Broadway and Hollywood productions, in addition to her current television work. Says she:

"While I'm doing this series, there isn't time for anything else. To film the weekly half-hour show we are on the set from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. five days a week. Actually during the 39 weeks of the series I see more of Bob Young than I do of my own husband."

"But my real husband is a tolerant and understanding character, in addition to being just as good-looking as any movie hero. We've been married for almost 25 years, so I think you could say the marriage is a success."

Science Turns World Inside Out for Fliers

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Scientists are turning the world inside out to give Air Force planners a better look at it.

Under development at Battelle Memorial Institute laboratories here is a unique type map which looks like a large bowl with the familiar features of the northern half of the world projected on its inside surface.

The Air Force asked Battelle to develop a globe-type map of the Northern Hemisphere which could be simultaneously viewed by a large number of persons and which could be seen in its entirety by any one viewer.

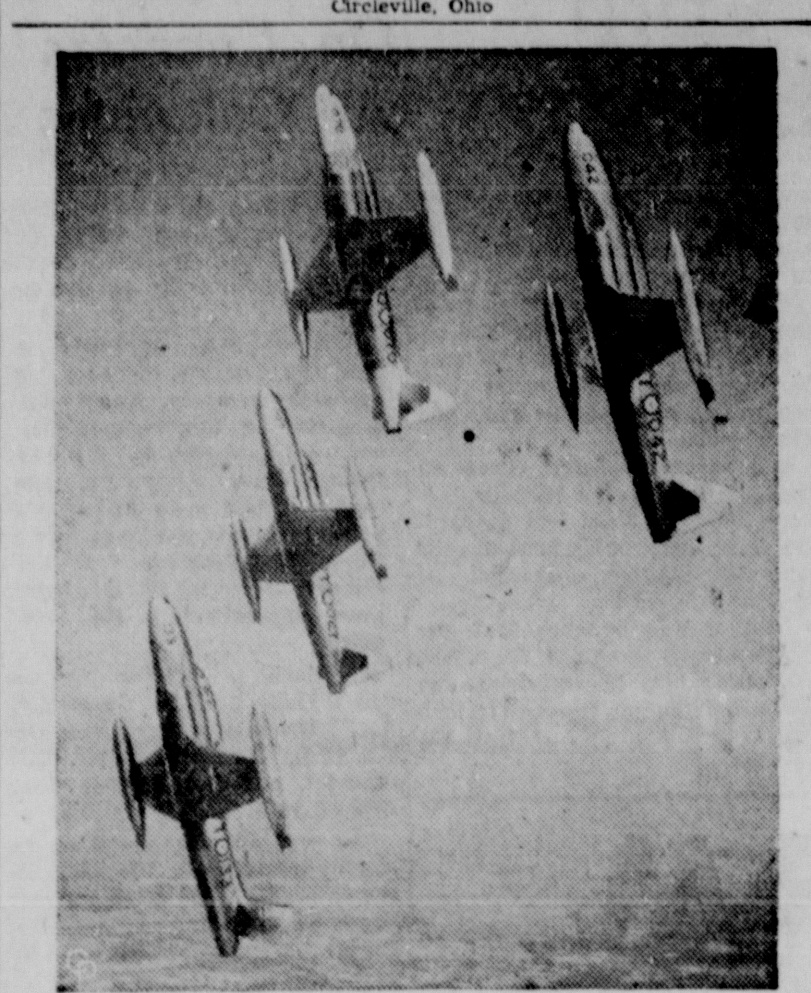

The trouble with a conventional globe is that only half of it can be seen at any one time, and the viewer must either turn it or walk around it to view the world.

The answer, figuratively speaking, is to put the viewer in the center of the earth looking outward—a bowl-type map.

The Air Force says it plans to install a 20-foot high bowl-type map in a special Air Force viewing room equipped with desks in terraced rows. Location of the viewing room was not disclosed.

The effect will be to give Air Force planners an undistorted total view of the Northern Hemisphere for the first time.

GOP Chieftain Sees Surprise For Experts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn said today Republicans may surprise the experts in the November elections.

He said the average citizen is "fed to the teeth with the activities of power-hungry and sometimes corrupt politico-labor bosses" and may decide to voice his silent anger and concern Nov. 4.

"If this happens," Alcorn added, "it seems fair to assume that Republican candidates generally will be helped while Democrats will suffer."

Alcorn, addressing a National Press Club luncheon, also predicted Southern Democrats will run a third party presidential candidate in 1960 because the "emotion-packed issue of civil rights will not down."

He said the Democrats must face that issue "and yet they cannot without forcing a devastating party split."

Whatever political upheavals result from the civil rights issue in 1960, Alcorn continued, the eventual result will be a strong two-party system in the South. He said this would be a healthy development for the South and nation.

Voter Registration Indicates Record Turnout at Polls

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Voter registration is rapidly building up to what looks like a record turnout for the Nov. 4 election.

Tens of thousands showed up at county registration boards Tuesday. Thousands more are expected to get their names down before today's deadline ends.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown predicts a larger registration turnout than the 3,137,000 recorded in the presidential election year of 1956. A record 3,761,322 went to the polls that year, including voters from counties not requiring registration.

Registration usually declines in non-presidential years. Brown said Tuesday. The thing that's bringing it up this year, he said, is the proposed amendment to the Ohio Constitution regulating labor contracts.

Ohio Democrats Given Nod from AF-CIO Group

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Democratic gubernatorial candidate Michael V. DiSalle and all but one of the other Democratic state candidates have been endorsed by the Ohio AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education.

Atty. Gen. William Saxbe was the only Republican to receive the blessing of the state labor political body.

DiSalle and Democratic senatorial candidate Stephen M. Young were praised for their announced stand against the proposed Ohio constitutional amendment to regulate labor contracts and their position favoring the payment of supplemental unemployment benefits.

In a statement Tuesday the committee said:

"It is unfortunate that Gov. O'Neill is supporting the anti-union shop proposal which is designed solely to weaken the unions of Ohio workers. In view of the long and consistent anti-worker record of Gov. C. William O'Neill as a member of the Legislature and as governor, his backing of another piece of anti-Labor legislation is not out of character."

- Stings
- All Boys (Or Girls)
- Protruding Ears

Q. "Last summer I was stung by a wasp and became violently sick. Would the same thing happen if I am stung by a bee?" —W.K.

A. Venom of the wasp, hornet, yellowjacket and honeybee contains a common poison. A person who reacts violently to the sting of one of these insects would probably react just as violently to the sting of the others. People who are known to be very sensitive to insect stings can be desensitized or made less reactive. Your doctor can give you all the information about how this is done.

Q. How do doctors account for some families having all boys and others all girls?

A. There is no satisfactory explanation. Age of the parents may have some slight effect. Young parents tend to have more boys than girls. The boy-girl difference levels off as the parents get older.

Letters will be answered in these columns anonymously. Direct your inquiries to J. Downey Ralston, M.D., SCIENCE EDITORS, P.O. BOX 396, Madison Square Station, New York 10, N. Y.

Q. If a baby has large protruding ears will it help to bind the ears back?

A. No, not according to a British doctor. Protruding ears can be corrected by surgery but plastic operation should not be performed until after the ears cease to grow. Even then the why's and wherefore's of an operation of this kind should be thoroughly discussed with the family physician.

Material in MEDICAL MIRROR is based on various scientific publications and does not necessarily reflect the opinion of all doctors. The diagnosis and treatment of disease requires the skill and knowledge which only a physician can apply by personally attending the patient.

Only a Few Red Students Doubt Soviet Government

Editor's Note—The Soviet Union is still a land of mystery to most Americans, but some U. S. exchange students have been given the opportunity to see it first-hand. Beverly Deepe, a 23-year-old Phi Beta Kappa graduate of the University of Nebraska just back from there, introduces some Soviet students in this first of four articles on her experiences in the Soviet Union and the satellite countries.

By BEVERLY DEEPE
Written for The Associated Press
It was a rare invitation—and I accepted promptly. Not every day does a Soviet student ask an American girl to his home.
At the set hour, Ivan appeared at my living quarters. We left without being seen by guards, evaded two pairs of "big ears" which followed us and finally we slipped into a courtyard filled with trees and grape arbors adjoining Ivan's one room and kitchen unit.
Inside, several of his friends were waiting to meet me.
In the center of the room stood a table covered with work oilcloth. The walls were ringed with a refrigerator four feet high, a cot,

There's Tempest In Coffee Pot

CANAJOHARIE, N.Y. (AP) — Should employees of Beech-Nut Life Savers Inc., a major coffee roaster, pay for the coffee they drink at work?
Yes, the company told workers at its baby-food plant here, and tossed the traditional free cup down the drain. Coffee will be a nickel, to cover rising cafeteria costs, the company said.
No, argued the Beech-Nut Employees Assn., which represents the 1,200 workers. Free coffee is a fringe benefit, the union claimed. The association sought arbitration.

International Accord Sought On Zinc, Lead

U.S. Imposes Quotas Until Global Accord On MetalsGet Nod

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The United States is imposing quotas on lead and zinc until some international agreement can be reached on control of world production. These metals join today many other commodities on which such world pacts are either in operation or sought from time to time.
Included are sugar, coffee, cocoa, rubber, tin and copper. This nation also has voluntary import quotas on oil. Many other lands have their own import quotas — some to protect home industries, some to safeguard their currencies.

The object of international production agreements is to control the supply — and thus the price. For example, 40 nations are meeting in a United Nations conference in Geneva seeking to stabilize sugar production. This country stabilizes the price of sugar by raising or lowering the amount that can be imported.

Thus do governments seek to regulate the law of supply and demand. They fear that if left to itself the law would lead to inflated prices for the home producers when world supply is over abundant.

President Eisenhower's imposition of the lead and zinc quotas comes just before he entertains the foreign ministers of 20 Latin American nations who have come to this country to discuss their problems — with economic complaints high on the agenda.

Mexico, Peru and Bolivia, exporters of lead and zinc, aren't likely to take kindly to the loss of part of their U. S. market. Canada and Australia also are protesting.

Metal men have been meeting in London to seek a pact on international production and on export controls. Copper was included for a time, and then dropped as activity picked up in that recession-hit industry.

Latin American companies have made repeated attempts to set up a workable plan for withholding coffee from the market when supplies get unwieldy. Just as they seemed to be making progress, African coffee producers' new trees began to bear. Once more the coffee market was upset and prices tumbled.

The Latin American and the happened in Hungary?" he whispered.

I started to answer, but one student came back. Ivan quickly changed the subject.

Ivan was one young Russian apparently willing to express doubts about Soviet standards of truth. But in my experience he was an exception. Only on rare occasions will Soviet students—even in private conversation—unveil dissatisfaction with their country. Then it concerns mainly the shortage of consumer goods.

Usually the Russians quizzed furiously. But when they were present in large numbers the questions were almost always argumentative: "What are your troops doing in Lebanon? Why is there racial discrimination in the United States? Why do you have unemployment?"

Other than Ivan's interrupted query about Hungary, the most pungent expression of disrespect for the system came when one of the Americans asked a Russian what he thought of Komsomol, the young Communist League.

"Well, I think you have an expression, pain where you sit down," he answered in broken English.

While dissatisfaction with communism appeared rare in the Soviet Union, the reverse seemed to be true among students in Poland. There I found that students work under far less control. They don't ask about jazz; they take you to a student dance where U. S. hipcats could find their match. They don't ask about modern art; colorful and modernistic advertising posters enliven billboards and walls.

In fact, a Polish student has much more to tell than ask.

One Pole made numerous anti-Soviet remarks to me and accused Poland's leader, Wladyslaw Gomulka, of "fouling up," especially in handling church-state relations.

He pulled out a copy of Pravda, flipped the pages and said: "Look, it says nothing here but 'keep smiling.'" Then he showed me a Polish student newspaper which is free to print such Polish quotations as "Poles are not geese, they have their own tongue" or "Freedom means as much as life."

But he shook his head.

"We have no hope of being independent; the Soviet Union is too close and too big. They have troops in the Warsaw suburbs. "But what can Poland do?" I asked.

"Just keep smiling," he replied. Later, I noticed how a Polish newspaper phrased the thought: "He who laughs, lasts."

The Polish student dropped his smile and looked at me intently. "You've been to Soviet Union," he said. "Tell me, which is stronger—Russia or the United States? This is the big question the Poles are asking."

Next: Soviet vacations.

Garry Moore Seeks To Shed His Tag as 'Fixture' on TV

NEW YORK (AP) — To Garry Moore the most frightening word in the language of television is "fixture."

Hearing himself referred to as a program "fixture" last season after years as the genial host of the CBS-TV morning show, he decided to unfix himself and strike out into the wild black nighttime of television.

The result: Next Tuesday the hour long weekly Garry Moore Show will make its debut on CBS-TV.

"If this flops, it's entirely my own fault and no one else's," says Moore. "I have a wonderful staff and CBS has given me every conceivable help."

One of the most modest and level-headed performers on television, Moore doesn't wish to pose as a hero in giving up a sure thing with his morning show in order to gamble on the hazards of a weekly nighttime show.

"Don't forget I'm still doing I've Got A Secret," he said. "That's an anchor to windward and I'm not courting starvation or anything. I simply mean that when you become a 'fixture' you're likely to get fat, dumb and happy. The creative side of entertainment has always been my biggest interest, and the new show is enabling me to be creative."

Moore admits his new show must come under the category of "variety," although he dislikes the connotations of the word in some minds. "But that's the only format—another word I dislike—that's big enough and loose enough to describe what we hope to do."

The emphasis will be on creative ideas and good writing rather than big-name stars.

"It's not the name of a guest that counts on a program," he

Heel Deal

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The soft est thing about American youth today, in the opinion of Marine Corps recruit depot doctors, are their heels.

Dr. J. M. Dennis and Dr. A. C. Winfield say many young recruits develop heel fractures. "They didn't get enough walking or running while they are growing up and their bones are developing," said Dr. Dennis. "They come into the service with soft feet — soft heels especially."

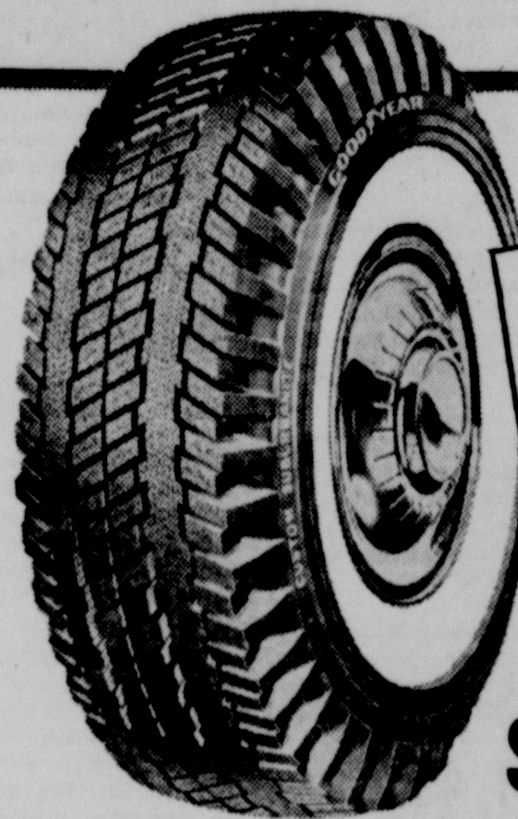

African producers are now seeking a pact which will limit exports enough to stabilize the price.

Most folk praise the law of supply and demand. But a lot of governments and industries try to tinker with it.

New Honor Camp Building Slated

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Work is expected to begin late this year on construction of an honor camp at a state nursery to house 60 inmates who will be transferred there from the Marion Correctional Institution.
The State Board of Control recently released $159,000 for the honor camp in Green Springs in Sandusky County. About 40 inmates now are at the nursery living in old buildings. Plans for the camp are nearly complete and work should be finished by the middle of next year, says Ernest Gebhardt, forester in charge of reforestation.

$1,651,492 In Aid Due Ohio Schools

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's share of the federal school aid plan will amount to $1,651,492 for fiscal 1959—June 30, 1958 to June 30, 1959—state school Supt. E. E. Holt said today.

But Dr. Holt said several thorny problems must be solved before the funds can reach local school districts.

He said still unanswered are such questions as what districts will receive how much aid, and who will provide the matching funds required under the federal program.

If the state will be asked to provide the local dollar for federal dollar funds, the state board does not yet know if it will have the money available, Holt added.

Congress has authorized 182 million dollars for school aid during fiscal 1959 for loans to college students, improving public education in the fields of science, mathematics and languages; loans to non-profit private schools, guidance and counseling programs and vocational training at the high school level.

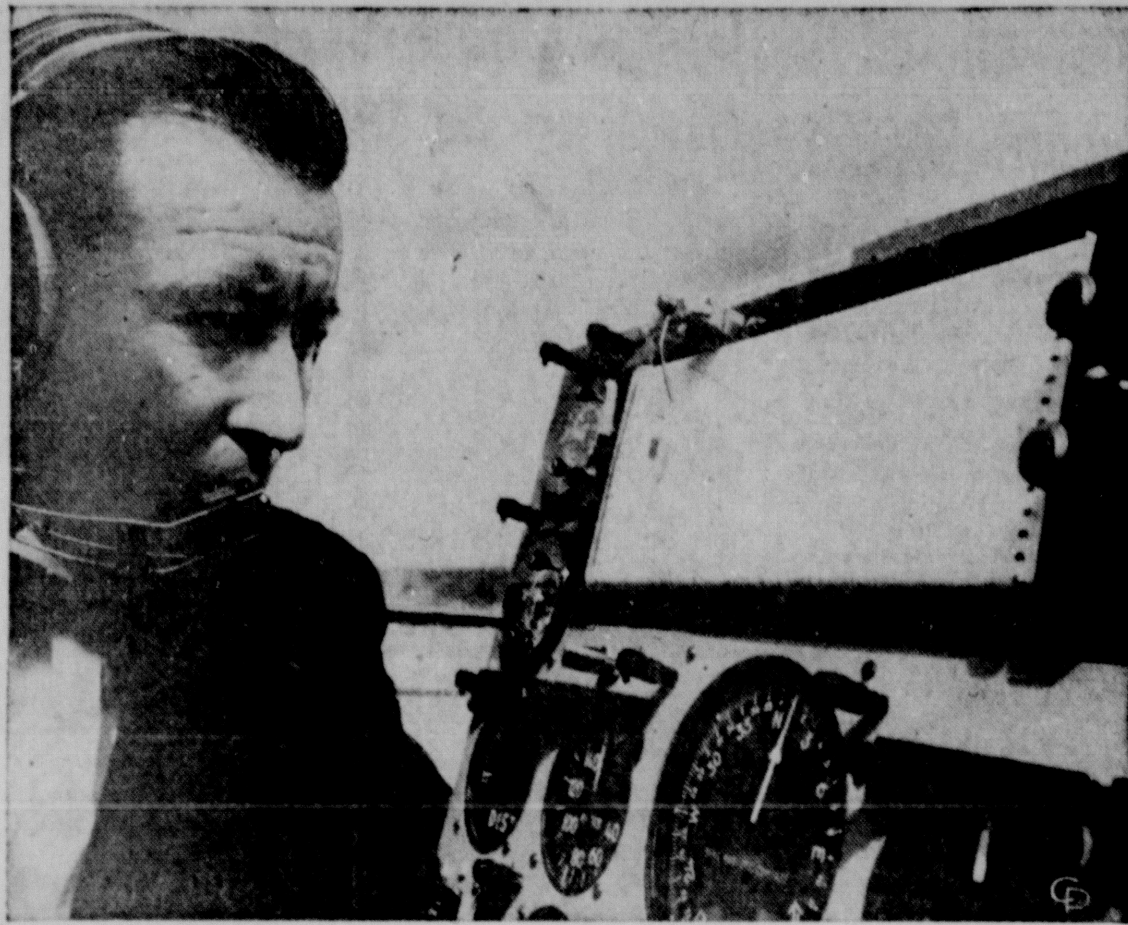

Holt said he will prepare an outline of the federal aid program and how Ohio can use its share for submission to the Oct. 13 meeting of the state board of education.

Lining gained recognition here for his stellar basketball playing during the past 1957-58 basketball season. He was named to the All-Pickaway County Basketball team and was runner-up to Dick Hoover for the Bob Bowsher trophy.

6 Cincy Negro Teachers Set For Lawsuit

CINCINNATI (AP)—A lawsuit was being threatened today in a controversy over the placement of six Negro teachers who formerly taught at the now discontinued Wayne High School in suburban Lockland.

Murray Seasongood, representing the teachers, said he is planning to file suit to force the Lockland School Board to assign the teachers to high school classes. Attorneys for the school board said, however, they would meet with the teachers in an effort to forestall any court action.

The controversy arose when the all-Negro Lockland Wayne High School was discontinued and its pupils transferred to the New Lincoln Heights High School and to Lockland High School.

The teachers in the Lockland Wayne High School were kept on as teachers at the Wayne Elementary School but they have contended they have continuing contracts as high school teachers. Seasongood said they claim they are certified high school teachers and either should be assigned to Lockland High School or be allowed to teach high school subjects at Wayne.

"You might say it's a case of school teacher integration," Seasongood said.

Judge Ingraham recommended the bride, a narcotics addict, be committed to a hospital.

Nonprofit List To Be Bared By Tax Agency

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Internal Revenue Service said today it will open its files Nov. 3 to disclose all approved applications for income tax exemptions granted nonprofit educational, charitable and religious organizations.

The action will be taken under a new law which permits the service to make public the applications together with its reasons for granting the exemption.

A revenue service spokesman said both the agency and the Treasury Department favored the change. He said the agency often has been asked by Congress members and others for an explanation of its actions on exemption applications, but has been barred by law from giving one.

There has been debate in Congress over tax exemptions granted a number of organizations including the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People and the Fund for the Republic.

Mays, Ashburn Run Close In Race for NL Bat Title

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Willie Mays and Richie Ashburn are so close in their run for the National League batting title you couldn't push a bunt between them.

At the moment, Willie's ahead by .0003 of a percentage point with a streaking .520 spurt for his last 14 games. Ashburn, batting a mere .424 for the same span, has a .3439 average to Mays' .3442.

Tuesday night, Mays was 3-for-5 against Chicago as the Cubs defeated the San Francisco Giants 3-2 in 10 innings. Ashburn was 2-

Ohio State Gets Nod To Defeat SMU, but 'It Could Be Close'

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK (AP) — They are painting the ceiling in the office and that odor you complain about is turpentine. The stench has absolutely nothing to do with the fact that 16 of 38 games last week, in the season debut, were incorrect.

This week's forecast:
Ohio State over Southern Methodist: The bruising Buckeyes have Don Clark and Bob White plus a rugged line. SMU has Don Meredith and some strong ambitions. It could be close if Ohio State is thinking only of Big Ten problems.

Oklahoma over West Virginia: The Mountaineers collared Richmond by 44 points last week. This time they find out how it feels to lose.

Auburn over Tennessee: Auburn, the country's No. 1 team last fall, isn't abdicating. Graduation took a heavy toll of Tennessee veterans.

Michigan over Southern California: Things, supposedly aren't as good at Michigan as they once were, but there should be enough left to handle the Trojans.

Iowa over Texas Christian: Strictly on a hunch.

Army over South Carolina: Army is having quarterback woes but how can you lose when Pete Dawkins and Bob Anderson are healthy?

Washington State over Northwestern: The Cougars may be the best on the West Coast.

Navy over William & Mary: The Midshipmen's rebuilding project gets a solid test.

Oregon State over Kansas: The Jayhawks get another sound thrashing.

Wisconsin over Miami: The margin may be as thin as a palm leaf fan. It is a Friday night encounter.

Notre Dame over Indiana: No danger to the Irish in this one.

Skipping over the others in a hurry:

FRIDAY
Detroit over Air Force, Georgia Tech over Florida State, Texas over Tulane, Denver over Utah State.

SATURDAY
EAST: Columbia over Brown, Cornell over Colgate, Dartmouth over Lafayette, Harvard over Buffalo, Delaware over Lehigh, Boston University over Massachusetts, Penn State over Penn, Princeton over Rutgers, Syracuse over Boston College, Virginia Military over Villanova, Yale over Connecticut, Pittsburgh over Holy Cross.

MIDWEST: Cincinnati over Wichita, Colorado over Kansas State, Dayton over Richmond, Drake over Colorado State U, Illinois over UCLA, Missouri over Idaho, Michigan State over California, Ohio University over Toledo, Oklahoma State over Nebraska, Texas State, Purdue over Nebraska, Minnesota over Washington.

SOUTH: Mississippi over Kentucky, Mississippi State over Florida, LSU over Alabama, The Citadel over George Washington, North Carolina over Clemson, Vanderbilt over Georgia, Wake Forest over Virginia Tech, Duke over Virginia, Maryland over North Carolina State.

SOUTHWEST: Arkansas over Tulsa, Baylor over Hardin Simmons, Houston over Texas A&M, Texas Tech over West Texas State, Texas Western over New Mexico.

FAR WEST: Iowa State over Arizona, Brigham Young over Utah, Rice over Stanford, Wyoming over Montana, Idaho State over Nevada, Arizona State over College of Pacific.

for-4 against Milwaukee as the Philadelphia Phillies beat the champion Braves 6-5.

St. Louis defeated Los Angeles 5-1 in another near-miss at a no-hitter by Sad Sam Jones in the only other NL game scheduled.

Mays, getting 200 hits for the first time in his career (Ashburn got his 200th hit Monday) beat out a dribbler in front of the plate, and a low roller toward third Tuesday night. His other hit was a solid single in the eighth inning—when he went to second on Leon Wagner's single, stole third and gave the Giants a 2-1 lead on an infield out.

Walt Moryn's 26th home run gave the Cubs a tie in the ninth against Lester Miller (6-9), and Ernie Banks then blooped an RBI double that won it in the 10th.

Ashburn, who leads Mays in hits 207 to 201 but has only three games remaining to Willie's four, beat out a bunt that loaded the bases in the eighth and set up Ed Bouchee's winning two-run single off lefty Juan Pizarro (6-4). Bouchee also rapped a first-inning homer, his ninth.

In case you haven't noticed, the New York Yankees haven't won a game since the day they clinched the American League pennant more than a week ago. They've lost six in a row since, their longest losing string in more than two years.

That's not exactly a rip-roarin' way to move into the World Series — which opens a week from today at Milwaukee — but you can't say Manager Casey Stengel is worried. His pitching staff has regrouped in that span, and his Yankees at least got rid of Ted Bowsfield, the pesty rookie southpaw who had beaten them three times, before they lost 9-8 at Boston Tuesday night.

But if there's one Yankee who isn't feeling chipper these days, it has to be Bob Turley — the AL's leading winner who now has failed in two shots at his 22nd victory. The big right-hander may get one more chance, against Baltimore this weekend in the windup of the regular season.

Turley escaped the defeat, but he was battered for five runs in the first inning and was through after Ted Williams hit a two-run homer, his 23rd, in the fourth that tied it 7-7.

Williams also rapped a double and single and received a standing ovation from the fans when he left for a pinch runner in the winning eighth. He drove in four runs, picked up three points for a .317 batting average and apparently made up for that bat flinging incident of Sunday.

Teammate Pete Runnels (2-for-4) upped his AL-leading average to .325 for a seven-point edge over Detroit's Harvey Kuenn who is a point ahead of Williams at .318.

Kuenn was 1-for-5, losing a point, as the Tigers defeated the Chicago White Sox 3-1. Cleveland retained a third-place tie with Boston and Detroit by beating Kansas City 7-5, and Baltimore defeated Washington 3-2 in the other AL games.

Although the Tigers received a stiff workout, Coach Bennett said the squad still needs polish and coordination, plus more fire and aggressiveness. He pointed out that the locals moved well in spots, but were not consistent in their efforts.

The Wilmington Hurricane comes here Friday night with two wins in two starts. The contest will be the first South Central Ohio League outing for both teams.

Wilmington's wins were a 12-6 decision over Franklin and a 36-12 victory over Lebanon. Information on both games indicates that halfback Mickey Vanscoy is the man to watch.

THE VETERAN Hurricane picked up 201 yards in 21 carries against Lebanon for a sizzling 9.5-yard average. Several of his runs came on long dashes.

Vanscoy also has proven to be a dangerous pass receiver and does his share of work on defense. Without a doubt, he will be the Tigers' number one target.

Circleville's counter to Vanscoy will be right half Walt Arledge who finally appears to be reaching top strength after a leg injury incurred three weeks ago.

Both gridders, suffering leg injuries, were wearing shoe weights in an effort to strengthen their ailing limbs. Coach Bennett indicated that Strawser probably will be ready as a starter, while the exact role of Hannahs still appears doubtful.

AWARE of their lagging offense in Friday's 6-0 loss to Rosary, the Tigers concentrated on running and passing. The CHS coaches also stressed blocking assignments and other key duties of linemen.

Coach Bennett, looking for his best ball moving combination, initiated several changes yesterday by moving Roger Wolfe into the left guard spot and inserting Dave Smith at right end.

Regular right end Jim Woods worked at quarterback, along with Tom Greeno, for added strength at that position.

Tigers Set Sights For Wilmington

Full speed scrimmage was the order of the day for Circleville's grid Tigers yesterday at the local fairgrounds.

With emphasis on offensive tactics, Coach Tom Bennett put his varsitymen through a lengthy and concentrated drill in preparation for Wilmington's invasion here Friday night.

As of yesterday, the Tigers' pesky injury situation looked a little better than it did last week. Tackle Harry Strawser was back in action and fullback Larry Hannahs came in for a share of light work.

Both gridders, suffering leg injuries, were wearing shoe weights in an effort to strengthen their ailing limbs. Coach Bennett indicated that Strawser probably will be ready as a starter, while the exact role of Hannahs still appears doubtful.

Preview of Series-- Yanks Given Edge In Speed, Defence

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Yankees' speed and defensive excellence may more than nullify Milwaukee's batting superiority in the 1958 World Series.

Center fielder Billy Bruton can no longer run wild on the bases as he did before fracturing his leg last season. Left fielder Wes Covington, another of the Braves' mainstays, has been bothered all year with a pulled leg muscle.

Red Schoendienst, 35-year-old second baseman, also has slowed down in the field and on the bases. So has shortstop Johnny Logan.

Thus, except for third baseman Eddie Mathews and right fielder Hank Aaron, the Braves will have no regular with more than average speed.

The Yankees have several fine baserunners from Mickey Mantle on down. Tony Kubek, Hank Bauer, Gil McDougald, Andy Carey and Yogi Berra are some of the others.

The extra base may come in handy in the tight, close-to-the-vest competition this one figures to be.

The Yanks have had 47 stolen bases. Milwaukee has 22. Another pertinent statistic shows the Braves with only 21 triples and New York with 39.

Defensively, the Yankees have the edge down the middle. The double play combination of McDougald and Kubek rates a shade better than Schoendienst and Logan. Mantle is faster and has a stronger throwing arm than Bruton. Catchers Yogi Berra of New York and Del Crandall of Milwaukee are about on a par as fielders.

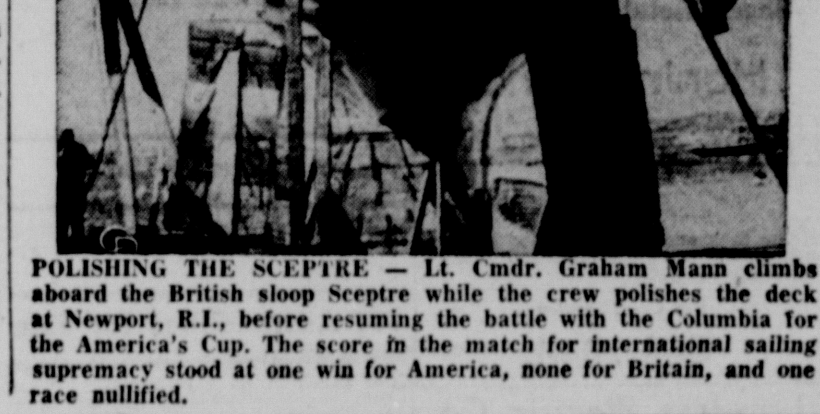

The Braves have the advantage at first base where Frank Toore figures as a better glove man than Bill Skowron. Covington, the fielding star of last year's series, and rookie Norm Siebern of the Yanks both have had their troubles in left field this season. There are no marked advantages at the other positions.

The identical batting average for each club (.268) is somewhat misleading.

Mantle, having one of his poorest seasons despite a league-leading 41 homers, and rookie Siebern are the only day-in, day-out Yankee players with a chance of finishing over the .30 mark.

Aaron, again the big gun, Mathews and Covington have accounted for 94 of the Braves' 163 homers. Aaron moved into the .330 bracket after a slow start. Covington and Torre also are well over .300.

(Thursday—Changes and possible strategy.)

POLISHING THE SCUPPERN — Lt. Cmdr. Graham Mann climbs aboard the British sloop Scuppern while the crew polishes the deck at Newport, R.I., before resuming the battle with the Columbia for the America's Cup. The score in the match for international sailing supremacy stood at one win for America, none for Britain, and one race nullified.

Dean & Barry House Paint makes your home look like a million

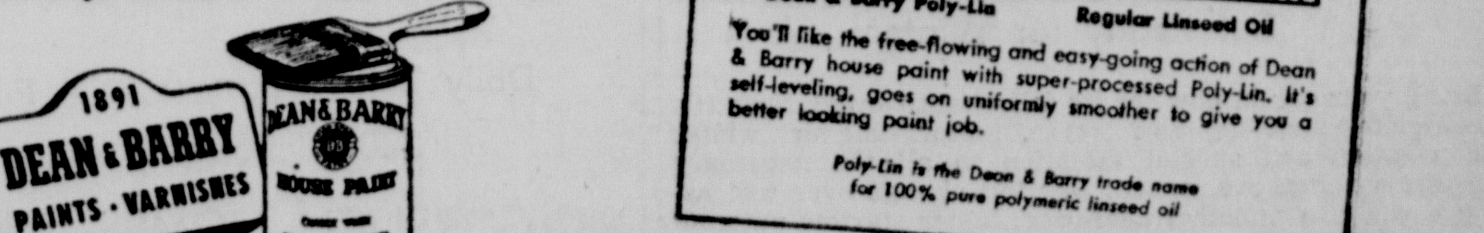

new Poly-Lin base defends against premature aging and dull-out

Now is a good time to put a searching eye on the paint job outside your home. Has it dulled-out, aged prematurely, taken on that "needs paint" look. Then take our word and try Dean & Barry house paint with Poly-Lin for real dollar-stretching economy.

Poly-Lin is the wonderful new super-processed linseed oil that defends much longer against aging, dull-out, tired-looking homes. It gives a tighter, tougher, uniformly stronger paint film. No weak spots to prematurely fall victim to weather and wear, take on a spotty appearance. Good news, too: Dean & Barry house paint with Poly-Lin makes possible a whiter white, colors so dressed-up bright.

About the cost? Less than most house paints made with ordinary linseed oil. Far less than any other brand we've ever known when you count the extra beauty and longer-lasting house paint job you get. Come in for a free estimate, or ask your painter-decorator to see us for the paint that really makes your home "look like a million."

Midwest Grid Roundup

Indiana Appears Headed For Big Ten Cellar Spot

EDITOR'S NOTE—This is another in a series on the major football teams in the Midwest.

By WALTER L. JOHNS

Central Press Sports Editor
BLOOMINGTON, Ind. — The new has been blended with the old at Indiana this year but it won't help the Hoosiers much.

Twenty lettermen, with eight starters from last season's year-end, are back at the old futile stand but the new touches are here and there—mostly off the football field.

The Hoosiers, who could win only one game in nine last year with their old uniforms, now are gaudy in their bird's-egg blue jerseys, red shoulder pin stripes and white pants.

A new practice field is being used, far away from the old site. A new stadium, costing $4,500,000, is in the making although it won't be ready until 1959. And, there's a new-old head coach in Phil Dickens and a new spirit among the boys.

Additionally, Indiana has scrapped the side-saddle T and installed the single wing as its basic offense.

Despite the innovations, however, Indiana just doesn't have it and Dickens, who sat out last year under a suspension because of recruting violations, figures it may take four or five years for the Hoosiers to get back into the contender's class in the Big Ten.

The Hoosiers, who have been out of the Big Ten feature picture for a dozen years, went through a rough year. In addition to Dickens, former Wyoming mentor, getting the suspension and the added problem of paying three head coaches in one year (Bernie Crimmins, Dickens and Dickens' aide, Bobby Hicks), three of his boys got into a bit of fistfuffs on the campus and now are awaiting trial on assault and battery charges. The best feature of this is that the case has been postponed.

On the field the Hoosiers, who could not win a game last year, are now at 67 strong but include 34 sophomores, face the unusual problem of no team speed and no depth.

"Our strongest point, and it's not going to be very much," said Dickens in a practice field interview set up like a schoolroom, "is our strengthened line. This was done by the shifts we made and by our sophomores."

"We moved Tony Aloisio to center and Mike Rabold to guard and we think we have some good sophomore linemen in Ed Morris, Bill Kerr and Moses Gray."

As the squad stands at this writing, the weak side ends are Ted Aucreman, one of the boys involved in the fistfuffs, and Norm Craft, and the strong side ends are John Aveni, who has good speed, and Earl Faison, a very promising sophomore who can do most anything athletically.

The weak side tackles are Pete Piccirillo and Ed Morris and on the strong side the leaders are Sam Congie and Gray with Bob Corrigan making a bid. Congie and Gray are the heaviest men on the team, weighing in around 225. Corrigan was shifted from center to end and then back to tackle.

One of the finest guards in the conference, Rabold, who also is the captain, holds forth at one spot with Elvin Caldwell No. 2 here. The other guards are Don Noone and Kerr. Kerr, a service returnee, played alongside Iowa's Cal Jones when both were at Steubenville, O., High.

Aloisio, one of the top players on the team, is the center with John

Johansson Rated Top Challenger

NEW YORK (AP) — Ingemar Johansson of Sweden not only earned the Fighter of the Month award by his quick knockout of Eddie Machen, but the feat has advanced him to No. 1 rating among the challengers for Floyd Patterson's heavyweight title.

Johansson replaces Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., in that spot in the Ring magazine's semi-monthly ratings, released today. Folley previously had fought a draw with Machen. He now is ranked second among the challengers, and Machen is dropped to fifth.

Archie Moore, ageless king of the light heavyweights, has been dropped from fifth to sixth place among the heavyweights.

Montreal Takes Lead In Governor's Cup

TORONTO (AP)—The Montreal Royals today hold a firm grip on the International League Governor's Cup final.

The pennant-winners shut out the Toronto Maple Leafs 5-0 Tuesday night to take a 3-1 lead in the best-of-seven series. Southpaw Bob Giallombardo held the Leafs to just two hits.

The fifth and possibly final game will be played here tonight.

Razmie No. 2

In Indiana's single-wing setup the quarterback is listed as a blocking back. The tailback calls the plays with the blocking back calling the signals. Eddie Fritz, who was a fullback, is the No. 1 blocking back, with George Klutinsky and Ken Hubbard next in line.

Tom Campbell, the brother of decaathlon star Milt, is the No. 1 wingback and the fastest man on the team. Behind him as a well-liked sophomore, Wilbert Scott.

Tom Kendrick, the best all-around passer on the squad, is the tailback with Teddy Smith and Tom McDonald fighting it out for recognition. Also a contender here is Steve Filipowski, a great passer, but a guy who lacks speed.

Tom Burgess is the fullback with Vic Jones and Jim Goodrich, formerly a blocking back, as the competitors. The flashy spot runner of the team, Willie Jones, who played only eight minutes last year, had a knee operation in the spring and recently injured his other knee and it's doubtful how much he will play.

Dickens changed from the side-saddle T to the single wing because "you need a bigger kid under center and Tom McDonald, our quarter and blocking back, weighed only 180 pounds."

Indiana's schedule lists Notre Dame, West Virginia, Iowa, Ohio State, Miami, O., Minnesota, Michigan State, Michigan and Purdue in that order.

Baseball's Czar Due to Miss Series

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick will miss the opening of the World Series for the first time since 1934. Frick was resting comfortably today in a New York hospital after undergoing an emergency appendectomy Tuesday.

Mrs. Frick said the commissioner was a little groggy after the surgery, but added: "There were no complications and he's doing fine."

Frick, 63, will miss the series opener for the first time since he was elected National League president 24 years ago. He became baseball commissioner in 1951, succeeding Happy Chandler, and had his contract renewed last year until Sept. 21, 1958. He draws $65,000 yearly.

Just 3 Years Ago Today, Absence of Flag Told Story

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP) — The big garrison flag wasn't flying that gloomy Saturday morning three years ago today. We didn't know it then but it meant President Eisenhower had suffered a heart attack.

Today, his 68th birthday less than a month away, the President is ruddy and apparently much refreshed after 3½ weeks of a lot of golf by the windswept sea at Newport, R.I.

Today most folks never would guess just by looking at Eisenhower that since the heart seizure in Denver exactly three years ago he also had brushed close to death with ileitis in June 1956.

They wouldn't guess, either, that last November he was hit by a slight stroke which affected his speech for a while.

But if you are a reporter who has covered Eisenhower's activities since he was nominated for the presidency in July 1952, then you know that this man's appearance means little—indeed, it can be most deceiving—so far as the state of his health is concerned.

Take, for example, that Saturday morning in Denver—Sept. 24, 1955—when the big garrison flag wasn't flying in front of the President's vacation office at Lowry Air Force Base.

To sleepy-eyed newsmen arriving at the base at 7:30 a.m. from a downtown hotel, that at the moment was good news. It meant they were on hand ahead of the early-rising Eisenhower—and that takes some doing—to see him arrive from the Lafayette Street home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. John S. Doud.

A medium-size American flag fluttered from the staff in the murky early autumn weather. But a much larger garrison banner always was run up in its place the minute the President arrived, and it had not been hoisted yet.

Time passed, and still no word the President was on his way.

The newsmen pondered the possibilities, but the delay wasn't disturbing. Apparently the President, for once, was coming to the office a bit later. Or maybe he had decided to skip the office and go directly to the golf course.

Not until midafternoon did they learn the real reason the garrison flag wasn't run up.
